Note Danish rules for "Yellow Flag"

When racing in Denmark you could be met with two different types of yellow flags.

The "steady" Yellow Flag - held so it doesn't wave - is an indication of danger further ahead and should be cautious. An obstacle could appear on the track - after Flag Zone 1

A "swinging" Yellow Flag - the official is swinging the yellow flag in "no. 8" circles - means there is an obstacle, possibly a rider down, in Flag Zone 1

Do not jump off ground, reduce the speed and be on high alert - do not overtake until the obstacle has been passed - the penalty given is 10 positions declassification or exclusion of the heat.

Flag Zone 1 - is the zone immediately after a flag official post. It is typically a "higher risk" area like right after a jump, before a downhill slope or in a blind corner where you cannot see the track ahead of you and you could run into an injured rider lying on the track.

The Flag Zone 1 is marked with yellow markers on each side of the track.
